PART 3—MEMBERS, DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURES AND GRIEVANCES

Division 1—Membership

7. Minimum number of members

The Association must have at least 5 members.

8. Who is eligible to be a member

- (2) A person becomes a member of the Association and, subject to rule 13(2), is entitled to exercise his or her rights of membership from the date, whichever is the later, on which—
 - (a) the Committee approves the person's membership; or
 - (b) the person pays the joining fee.

12. Annual subscription and fee on joining

- (1) At each annual general meeting, the Association must determine—
 - (a) the amount of the annual subscription (if any) for each class of member for the following financial year; and
 - (b) the date for payment of the annual subscription.
- (2) The Association may, in its absolute discretion and in respect of any type of membership, determine that a lower annual subscription is payable by a member in circumstances as determined by the Committee from time to time and which may include financial circumstances (including whether or not the member is a pre-service teacher or retired teacher), the size and nature of an Institutional member or other circumstances.
- (3) The Association may determine that any new member who joins after the start of a financial year must, for that financial year, pay a fee equal to—
 - (a) the full annual subscription; or
 - (b) a pro rata annual subscription based on the remaining part of the financial year; or
 - (c) a fixed amount determined from time to time by the Association.

14. Classes of Membership

Institutional member

- (1) Subject to approval by the Committee in the same manner as set out in rules 10 and 11, educational institutions including primary and secondary schools and tertiary institutions may apply for membership as an “Institutional member” in the same manner as set out in rule 9 and subject to rules 14(2) to 14(6).
- (2) An Institutional member which teaches up to (but not greater than) year 6 students may apply for membership as an “Institutional member – Primary School”. - (3) An Institutional member – Primary School may substitute any of its nominees from time to time during the relevant financial year provided that the total number of nominated persons at any one time does not exceed three (3) unless the Institutional member – Primary School pays additional subscription fees as set out in rule 14(6).
- (4) An Institutional member which teaches any students at or above year 7 students may apply for membership as an “Institutional member”. An Institutional member is not entitled to vote but may nominate up to four (4) persons to be members of the Association and each of those nominees shall be entitled to all rights and obligations that accompany any other ordinary member of the Association including the right to vote provided that the Institutional member remains a current member of the Association.
- (5) An Institutional member may substitute any of its nominees from time to time during the relevant financial year provided that the total number of nominated persons at any one time does not exceed four (4) unless the Institutional member pays additional subscription fees as set out in rule 14(6).
- (6) Any Institutional member (including an Institutional member – Primary School) may increase the total number of nominees it is entitled to under rules 14(2) or 14(4) provided the Institutional member pays additional annual subscription fees as determined by the Committee.

Notes

The Association recognises that primary schools may have different needs and budgetary constraints to other educational institutions and has therefore devised rules 14(2) and (3) to allow primary schools to participate as Institutional members with lower annual subscriptions and correspondingly fewer nominees.

In accordance with rule 14, the Association intends that Institutional members (including Institutional members – Primary School) may from time to time nominate persons to participate in the Association as ordinary members on an ad hoc basis and that the Institutional member at its discretion may replace or substitute its nominees in order to encourage participation and engagement between the staff of the Institutional member and the Association.

A person nominated by an Institutional member is not required to pay an annual subscription during the period that the Institutional Member is a current member of the Association.

Nominees of an Institutional member are not entitled to be members of the Committee (see rule 49)

Corporate member

- (7) Subject to approval by the Committee in the same manner as set out in rules 10 and 11, incorporated bodies which are not educational institutions may apply for membership as a “Corporate member” in the same manner as set out in rule 9.

 - (a) may from time to time appoint any person who is an employee, officer or agent of the Corporate member to represent the Corporate member within the Association;
 - (b) must not be an officer or committee member of the Association however the Corporate member may make presentations to the Committee (provided that reasonable prior notice is given to the Committee) and may accept delegation of powers and functions of the Committee pursuant to rule 43; and
 - (c) is otherwise entitled to the same rights and obligations as any other ordinary member of the Association, including the right to vote.

Whether Organisation Institutional or Corporate

- (9) The Committee may decide, in its absolute discretion, whether an application for membership by an organisation is an Institutional member application or a Corporate member application.

Life member

- (10) The Committee may:
 - (a) determine principles and criteria (which must have regard to, amongst other things as determined by the Committee, recognition of services rendered to the Association) upon which Life membership may be granted to a natural person; and

- (b) based on the principles and criteria determined in rule 14(10)(a), grant a natural person Life membership.
- (11) Life members:
- (a) are not required to pay an annual subscription fee;
 - (b) are entitled to vote; and
 - (c) who are life members of either (or both) ICT in Education Victoria Inc. or the Victorian Information Technology Teachers Association Incorporated are deemed to be life members of the Association.

Ordinary member

- (12) All other members will be considered “Ordinary members” or “members” as the context requires.

 - (ii) the member has not, within 3 months after receiving that request, confirmed in writing that he or she wishes to remain a member.

- (3) Where an Institutional member or Corporate member is taken to have resigned pursuant to rule 17(2), all persons nominated or appointed by the relevant Institutional member or Corporate member, as the case may be, are also deemed to have resigned at the same time as the relevant Institutional member.

18. Register of members

- (1) The Secretary must keep and maintain a register of members that includes—
